

Hot Happenings

Tomorrow night at the ArtHouse Hotel, charity Jeans for Genes celebrates its 15th year by launching their 2008 campaign. On Tuesday, Jaguar celebrate the arrival of its XF range at Blue; LG will unveil its latest piece of mobile technology; Sisley shows its newest potion at the InterContinental; and Zoe Foster gives us a peek at her first novel, Air Kisses, in Artspace, at Woolloomooloo.

On Thursday, Leo Sayer will be guest judge at The Bourbon's Karaoke For Heart Kids competition to raise money for families of children with heart disease.

Project Runway, hosted by Kristy Hinze (pictured), will be launched on Wednesday over drinks at the GPO, while Nivea will host a party for its latest potions at The Comedy Store.

The same day, there's the Wharfies Long Lunch at Woolloomooloo Wharf, a fundraiser for Variety. Visit www.varietynsw.org.au

On Thursday, YSL Beauté hosts the launch of its Rouge Volupté lipstick at Paddington's Gurner Street Gallery.